Q. Place of birth?

Precisely in the city of Douala the economic capital of my country, Cameroon

Q. Why this career choice?

I am a person who is passionate about care.

For me to give of my time and to take care of people has always been my biggest dream.

In short, I am happy when I see the smiles on the faces of the patients and those around me.

Q. Did you choose the NB or did it choose you?

I chose New Brunswick and in return it has opened its doors to me and welcomed me.

Q. Your passion?

Taking care of those in need as I said above, and traveling because I love to go in search of the unknown.

Q. Favorite pastime?

I like to stay at home and listen to music or make small graphic edits.

Q. What advice did you appreciate the most?

In reality, I have several that I will summarize here:

Don't be a spectator of other people's lives, be an actor in your own life, don't get distracted by what's going on around you, stay focused on your goals.

Q. Best travel experience?

For now, it's my trip to Canada since it was my first time to go so far from my country.

Q. Destination yet to be discovered? Why?

France and the United States of America.

- because that's where my loved ones are.

Q. Dinner with any person from history, you would choose? Why?

Florence Nightingale

She was the first to really teach and to standardize patient care in order to make it a real profession.

She is my role model.

Q. Last book read?

I'm not really a big fan of books though I really like literature.

Q. Favorite quote?

The ones we love, we don't judge.

- Jean Paul Sartre

Q. Favorite author ?

Jean Paul Sartre

Q. A book you recommend and why?

I strongly recommend this book.

Because life makes people live without paying much attention to what happens to them.

Q. What are you most proud of?

That I am not an envious person - I like to create my own path.

Q. You win the lottery, what do you do?

Construct a hospital in Cameroon..

Q. Favorite movie or theatre?

Not any one specifically though I like romantic movies and funny plays

Q. Your advice to newcomers who want to settle in Restigouche, NB?

Just tell them that New Brunswick is a welcoming land.

They should not hesitate to come and bring their golden touch too, it will contribute to the progress and advancement of all.

Q. A word that best describes you?

It is difficult for me to choose one word however I will go with:

Courageous

Q. You have the magical power to grant three wishes, what would they be?

- give health to the world;
- resurrect my father; and
- have a planet where only pure-hearted people live.

Q. Who was the hero of your childhood? Today?

Childhood: my father

Today: my loving mom

Q. The question you detest?

I answer all the questions because I like to provide subject matter for follow-up commentaries (laugh)

Q. Regarding immigration to NB in general and specifically for newcomers to our region, what do you think are some of the challenges and solution (s)?

My first challenge was in terms of food.

Here it is a bit difficult to get African food.

I would like some stores to be able to carry African products.

Then there is the housing problem.

Although I did not experience this personally, I still noticed that some people could not find accommodation and when they did find it usually did not meet their expectations or level of convenience.

Q. What would you like to see written on your tombstone?

Julie love

Q. Share something that people may not know about you!

(Laugh) So many people know things about me more than I, about my life more than I do.

I don't think there is anything else to add to what they already know.

Q. If you were given the opportunity to live in another era (century, etc.), which one would you choose? Why?

I would like to live in the time when there weren't all these weird diseases, when human beings lived in harmony, without confrontation, without hatred, without jealousy and without gossip.

Q. The question that you wish you had been asked?

(Laughs) I think I got all the questions even the ones I didn't expect.

Thank you.

I really enjoyed participating in this question and answer exchange, it was a pleasure.
